ROCK VIEW WINS TRAVERS

AUGUST BELMONT'S GOOD COLT HAS EASY TIME IN TAKING FAMOUS FIXTURE.

Roamer Carries Colors of Andrew Miller to Victory in Saratoga Special and Wickson Wins the North American Steeplechase.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 9.—Close to 10,000 persons visited the local track thiz afternoon, even though the weather was threatening, and they witnessed some good sport, as well matched fields went to the post. Three of the six races were stakes, with the Saratoga Special, for two-year-olds, as the particular feature. This was strictly a sportsmen's race, as it cost $250 to start, or half that amount forfeit, and Andrew Miller, secretary and treasurer of the Saratoga Association, won the race with Roamer, the youngster that he purchased at Belmint Park from Woodford Clay. Roamer made the greater part of the pace, although he was temporarily headed in the stretch by Gainer. When it came to the final drive Roamer drew out again to win by a length and a half.

The Saratoga Special was instituted in 1901 and its history is as follows:

August Belmont's good colt, Rock View, had an easy time of it in winning the Travers Stakes. He and under restraint all the way and took the lead in the stretch to win by a good margin. Tommy McTaggart, the regular stable jockey, had the mount, the differences between him and trainer Feustel having been settled. The trouble was brought about by McTaggart's reporting tardily at the stable a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Belmont arrived here last night to see the colt race,

The Travers Stakes is an ancient fixture, first run in 1864 at one and three-quarter miles. It distance was reduced to one and one-eighth miles in 1901, and the tabled history of the race since that date is shown below:

James Carruthers, vice president of the Montreal Jockey Club, W. P. Frazer, secretary of the Ontario Jockey Club, A. R. Loudon, secretary of the Comaught Park Jockey Club, and Charles O. Smith, who is interested in the Ottawa track, were among the visitors today. Messrs, Loudon's and Smiht's mission here was in the interest of the fall meeting at Ottawa, which will be held from August 27 to September 3, and as the meeting here will be nearing its end by the time the racing starts at that track, it is expected that quite a number of horses will be shipped from here to Ottawa.

There was a rumor afloat today to the effect that the stewards had restored jockey Carroll Shilling to good standing and that he would be seen in the saddle today but this proved to be untrue. Shilling said that while he was hoping that the Jockey Club stewards would take action on his case and permit him to ride, he had not made any application during the present meeting.

The condition book for the five-days' meeting to be held at the Empire City track have reached here and were distributed among the horsemen.

Joseph J. Burke, who acts as judge at Woodbine, Montreal. Ottawa and Hamilton, probably will be appointed official handicapper for the fall meeting at the Woodbine track.

Colonel Cook, winner of the fifth race, was bid up $500 and purchased by J. O. Talbott for $1,100.

J. N. Camden's good gelding Imperator was slightly injured during the running of the Saratogar Special by being thrown against the fence.

MACKENZIE HORSES IN WINNING FORM.

Buckhorn and Melton Street Score a Double for Wealthy Canadian at Fort Erie Track.

Wealthy Canadian at Fort Eric Track.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 9.—The colors of R. J. Mackenzie, the Winnipeg millionaire, were in the limelight at Fort Eric again this afternoon. His Broonstick three-year-old Buckhorn, was winner of the mile and a sixteenth handicap, while Melton Street handily disposed of a good band in the fifth race. The track was in a slow condition, following heavy rain in the early morning, and the Mackenzie equine stars demonstrated their mud running proclivities to advantage. Buckhorn had little trouble in repeating his performance of the previous afternoon, and, spreadeagling his opposition, won in a canter from Amos Turney's Flabbergast and Adair and Baker's Samuel R. Meyer.

Melton Street got up in the closing strides of his race to win from Ymir. The Mackenzie horse was the medium of heavy support by his connections. Jenny Geddes, the 6 to 5 favorite, ran disappointingly and was never prominent during the running.

Followers of form evened their score with the layers this afternoon, five first choices winning. The attendance was far below the expectations of the management, the smallest half holiday crowd of the present season being present.

E. W. Moore's Joe Stein, an outsider in the betting, caught the judges' eyes first in the opening dash, a selling affair at three-quarters. The Ivan the Terrible juvenile, Hodge, running in the colors and interests of F. J. Coleman, romped home an easy winner in the two-year-old allowance race, while Birdie. Williams won her first purse for J. W. Schorr in the other juvenile race. Joe Kniight upset calculations in the sixth race when he won in a drive from the well-backed Hoffman and Righteasy.

upset calculations in the sixth race when he won in a drive from the well-backed Hoffman and Right-casy.

Prior to the running of the races this afternoon, W. H. Collins disposed of the two-year-old Hodge to F. J. Coleman. The terms of the sale were private. J. W. Hedrick sold Mfleage to Gallaher Bros.

As an aftermath of the scandal at the recent Hamilton meeting, it became known this afternoon that a number of trainers were warned off the tracks of the Canadian Racing Associations. Those affected by the latest edict of the governing body are Eddic Rathman, Luke Le Blond and Thomas Shannon.

Jockey Willie Hopkins departed for his home in Vermont last night.

W. R. Engström, who had charge of the ring at the recent Coeur d'Alene meeting, and also later operated at Butte, was among the arrivals today and Joined the ranks of the local layers. Frank J. Shannon and George Zeller came in from Saratoga Springs and cut in this afternoon.

The stewards have begun a rigid investigation into the running of the race won by Caper Sauce yesterday. Jockey Teahan, who rode Havrock, is charged with having-interfered with jockey H. Gray, the rider of Sarolta, by striking both the horse and rider with his whip during the backstretch racing. The stables of G. M. Johnson and F. J. Grefer have arrived at Windsor from Butte, Jockey Charlile Peak accompanied the Johnson stable. C. W. Gasser, another arrival from Butte, is negotiating for the services of Jockey Buxton for the Windsor meeting.

Jockey Gross, who was injured during the Hamilton meeting, was at the track today and stated that he would not ride again until the Windsor meeting.

Toronto, Ont., August 9.—Despite threatening weather, fully 5,000 persons, the largest crowd of the meeting barring the opening day, witnessed the running of today's card of nine races at Dufferin Park. numerous form reversals. Only two favorites were successful.

Susan, a "good thing," backed from 6 to 1 down to 3 to 1, made good decisively in the fifth race and won by three lengths after leading throughout. The seventh race, which served as the feature, went to that old campaigner, Dr. Holzberg, which found the soft footing to his liking. Barn Dance, the pacemaker, hung on long enough to save second place from the fast closing Senator Sparks.

The stable of J. H. Lamb again furnished two of the winners in Jim L. and Song of Rocks, the former winning in a hard drive, while the latter was well in hand at the end.

Jockey Jensen, who had previously been suspended for rough riding, was reinstated today, only to be again suspended by starter Murray and fined $15 for disobedience at the post.

For the same offense jockeys Knight and Chappell were fined $10 each and the former was also suspended for the remaining day of the meeting.

Due to his fractiousness while at the post for the eighth race, the entry of Glipian will be barred in future.

ANACONDA MEETING OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY.

Anaconda, Mont., August 9.—The annual four-teen-days race meeting, under the auspices of the Deer Lodge County Racing and Fair Association, began here this afternoon under auspicious circumstances. The attendance was good and the racing interesting throughout. Seven races were run today and the same number will be carded each day throughout the meeting.

The same officials are serving as at Butte, with the exception of Racing Secretary Edward Jasper. George S. Klotz is filling the latter position here. Heavy rains in the early morning made the track wet and the mud runners were in their element.

Simpsilla won the feature race of the day from Daddy Gip and Envy. Simpsilla appeared to revel in the going and won with consummate ease.

Sleepland, winner of the fifth race, was bid up $300 by S. J. Kelley, but was retained by his owner with the customary advance of $5.

Twelve books cut in and speculation was brisk throughout the afternoon. The racing was formful, considering the condition of the track.

BLUE GRASS FAIR RUNNING RACES.

Lexington, Ky., April 9.—Running races under the rules of the Kentucky State Racing Commission will be a feature of the Blue Grass fair here next week. W. J. Trency is slated for presiding judge. James P. Ross will do the starting and the parimutuel department will be under the supervision of M. J. Shannon. Two races are carded for Monday, as follows:

First Race, for maiden two-year-olds, 5-8 mile, special weights: Transitory, 109; Transportation, 109; Molma, 109; Stella Grane, 109; Sardeous, 112; Honey Mine, 109; Hubertine, 109.

Second race, for 3-year-olds and upward, 3-4 mile, allowances: Ethelda, 114; Ada Bay, 109; Gotden Egg. 109; Billy Holder, 109; Silk Day, 162; Dixie Jackson, 102.

CHARLESTON RACING SANCTIONED IN PART

Saratoga, N. Y.. August 9.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club, held at the clubhouse of the Saratoga Association this afternoon, there were present August Belmont, H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller and S. L. Parsons. They took up the case of jockey J. Wilson without rendering a verdict, but called a meeting for Thursday, August 15, and Wilson, former jockey J. Reed, Robert Mendelsohn and others were summoned to appear.

NEXT SHIFT WILL BE TO WINDSOR.

Final Meeting of 1913 at That Track Will Open Next Saturday with Good Prospects.

Saturday with Good Prospects.

Detroit, Mich., August 9.—More than $40,000 will be distributed in stakes and purses during the second summer meeting of the Windsor Jockey Club beginning next Saturday. The class of horses contesting will be equal to that of those seen in action during the July meeting across the river. So far as the quantity is concerned, stable room has been asked for nearly 500 head, or about fifty more than were on hand for the first week's racing here this year. One notable change in the racing contention will be the improved form exhibited by the Kentucky racers. In July the horses from the blue grass region seemed jaded as the result of their hard campaigning over the Louisville and Latonia tracks during the hot months of May and June.

The gratifying change in the temperature of the racing points in the vicinity of the great lakes have invigorated the southern horses to a perceptible degree. They cut little or no figure in the races at Windsor and seemed dull and stale during the early part of the Hamilton meeting. But during the last week they have come into their own with the result that they have wom many races at Fort Erie, including the rich Dominion Handicap, which was easily taken by Flora Fina.

Flora Fina will be a contender in the Ferry Handicap, to be run-on the opening day of the Windsor meeting. Other cligibles which look like sure starters in this stake on Saturday next include Flabbergast, Lochiel, First Sight, Little Father, Great Britain, Kingly, Buckhorn, Leochares, Hamilton and Kleburne. There are thirty-six nominations to the Ferry and the value of the stake is $2,500.

The manner in which the Mackenzie horses have regained their form since coming to the Canadian circuit has caused race-goers to sit up and take notice. Buckhorn was a wreck when he struck Windsor from Latonia, but three weeks in this climate has benefited him amazingly. Now that Buckhorn, Helei Barbee and the other horses in trainer Jack Adkins' charge are in winning condition, owner Mackenzie may be ex

ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB'S RICH STAKES.

Canada's premier racing organization, the Ontario Jockey Club of Toronto, offers a list of stake races for its autumn meeting to close for entries at midnight of Monday, August 11. They are eight in number, of which three are limited to Canadian-bred horses or Canadian-owned horses, they being the Dominion Handieap, Durham Cup and Seagram Cup. The others are open to all and are the Toronto Autumn Cup at a mile and a quarter with $2,500 added, both being for three-year-olds and over; Michaelmas Handieap for two-year-olds at a three-quarters of a mile with $1,500 added, for y Stakes, for two-year-olds at a mile with $1,500 added, and the Hendrie Steeplechase at two miles and a half with $2,000 added. These are all attractive values and are supplemented by overnight handicaps ranging in value from $700 up to the $1,000 Rothschild Cup. The ordinary purses will be of $500 and $600. Altogether the monetary program is in accord with the club's well established reputation for liberality in its dealings with horsemen and these events should attract nominations of the best horses of the day. There is not much time left in which to make entries and they should be mailed promptly to Secretary W. P. Fraser, Toronto, Ont. Full conditions of the races appear elsewhere in this issue of Daily Racing Form.

CORRECTION OF ODDS.

The place odds against Blarney in race 10187 were 9-10 and the show odds against Mollie Richards in race 10190 were 9-10, instead of as previously pub-lished, telegraphic errors being responsible for the discrementary.

orgamed GAINER and drew out again in the last sixteenth to win going away. GAINER moved the stretch turn and, taking the lead, appeared like a certain winner, but tired in the last eighth. B TONEY ran a good race and was prominent all the way. PUNCH BOWL closed a gap from a poor and finished close up. FIGINNY ran well and had no mishaps. SPEARHEAD was knocked back start and closed a big gap. EARLY ROSE ran in tight quarters all the way. IMPERATOR was back several times and was in a bad position next to the rail and was pulled up in the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Rock Sand—Golden View (trained by L. Feutel).

Went to post at 4:16. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won cantering: second and third driving. ROCK VIEW ran under stout restraint to the stretch, where he moved up and took the lead without much effort and was hard held through the last eighth. PRINCE EUGENE was saved behind the leaders to the stretch, then moved up with a rush and took second place in the last few strides. BARN-EGAT showed considerable speed and hung on well in the final strides. HAWTHORN showed the most speed for a mile, but found the distance too far and tired.

Scratched—(10129)Cock o' the Walk, 129.
